EACH year Glory City Church West at the Tivoli Drive-in opens its doors to people who might not be able to afford a tasty Christmas meal and to those who have no one to spend the day with, to share in a big community feast. With Christmas only a few short weeks away, the church and the Tivoli Drive-in are beginning to prepare for the day, which last year attracted 200 people. Donna Isaacs, from Glory City Church

West, said the day was a way for the community to come and spread the Christmas spirit by enjoying a meal together and having conversations and laughing with new friends. To help make the day a big success, more volunteers are needed for a number of roles. In particular, Ms Isaacs especially needs the help of experienced drivers who can help drop off and pick up some of the city's most isolated residents. Find out how you can help make a positive contribution on page 11.
